What Each Stage Feels Like For A Student

You're starting to think about how you want to spend your time and what causes matter most to you. Try different opportunities and see what sparks your interest.

You're getting involved: joining a club, attending events, and testing different ways to contribute. What kinds of experiences feel most meaningful?

You're active in a few groups and beginning to apply your skills to make a difference. Volunteering is helping you discover what you're good at and what you enjoy.

You're taking on more responsibility and becoming someone others can rely on. Your consistency, skills, and leadership are making a visible difference.

You're leading initiatives, mobilizing others, building a network, and creating measurable impact. Your actions inspire those around you and expand what's possible.
